Subject.

Letter No 171 dated 13th September 1902 from the District Magistrate, Tumkur Submitting for orders an application from Narasimha Bhupalacharya of Anegundi Matt praying for permission to allow his Suite to carry 2 single barrel guns, 2 Swords and 1 pistol as a Symbol of honour and for self protection during his tours in the State.

Note.

The District Magistrate submits an application from Narasimha Bhupalacharya of Anegundi Matta who styles himself as a Guru of the Panchamana or goldsmith caste praying for permission to carry certain arms as a symbol of honour and for self protection.

A copy of the Registered Extract of a Huzur Rahadari bearing the date, 18th day of the 1st half of Vaisakha of the year Khara (1831) is submitted. The Rahadari purports to be an order issued to Amildars conveying permission to the Guru to carry 1 Sword, 3 daggers, 6 Karnatick guns and 2 Pistols in addition to no other insignia during the tour of Sirhyaree and Zilla Guru, in the various Taluks of the State.

The Dt Magistrate further states that it is reported that the guru has at present 2 out-of-order Karnatek guns two pistols and 2 swords; & ~~requests~~ solicits early orders as to whether the guru may be allowed to keep the weapons as before on the strength of the Rahadari referred to or whether pending the final orders of Government, the weapons should be seized and kept in the nearest Police Stations under the rules in force now.

The guru prays for permission to allow his suite to carry 2 sight barrel guns, 2 Swords and 1 Pistol as a symbol of honour and for self-protection during his tours in the States.

In Government order No 95-99-607 / J 11191 dated 18th February 1899 * Govt expressed concurrence in the view taken by the Mangrai Supdt that the privilege of exemption from

from the operation of the provisions of the Mysore Arms Regulation need not be extended to the Gurus of all the Mattu in the State, but that it should be confined only to those presiding over the Mattu specified by him owing to their comparative importance and to the fact of their enjoying exemption from personal appear-ance in Civil Courts. It was also observed that it was un-necessary to pass any general order with regard to Gurus of Mattu in the absence of special application from any of them.

Under clause (1) of Rule I of the Arms Rules "all persons who are exempted from personal attendance at the Civil Courts are exempted from the operation of certain sections of the Arms Regulation"

It does not appear that the present applicant, viz, the Guru of the Anegundi Matt has been exempted from personal attendance ~~appearance~~ at the Civil Courts.

2he

The points for orders are:-

(1) Whether the Guru may be permitted to keep the weapons now in his possession on the strength of the Rahadari above referred to

(2) Whether he should be asked to take out a license under the Arms Rules to keep the weapons & till license is granted, to hand over the weapons to the nearest Police Station.

(3) Whether the matt is of such importance as to justify the Guru thereof being exempted from ~~the operation of the~~ personal attendance at the civil courts and thereby exempted from the operation of the Arms Regn.

In this case, the District Magte's opinion as to whether the Guru maybee excepted from the personal attendance at the civil courts

Sir,

I have the honor to submit herewith for orders the application of Narasimha Bhupalachariyar of Anegundi matt, residing at Ganjalakunte in the Maddagiri Taluk praying for permission to allow his disciple to carry 2 Single barrel guns, 2 Swords, and 1 pistol as a symbol of honor and for self protection during his tours in the State.

The applicant styles himself the Guru of the Panchanama caste. He has produced an authenticated copy obtained from the Dewan's office, of the Registered Extract of a Huzur Rakadari bearing the date, 13th day of the 1st half of Vaishakha of the year Khara. The Rakadari purports to be an order issued to Amildars conveying the permission to carry 1 sword, 3 daggers, 6 Kamatik guns and 2 Pistols in addition to other insignia during the tour of Shishyaparchana of this Guru of the Goldsmiths in the various Talukas of the State. It seems to have been issued about 72 years ago, long before the passing of the Indian Arms Act. The Guru has not been recommended for exemption from the operation of the Mysore Arms Regulation after the passing of the said Regulation.

2. The Guru, it has been reported, has at present 2 out-of order Kamatik guns, two pistols and 2 swords. Early orders are solicited as to whether the Guru may be allowed to keep the weapons as before on the strength of the Rahadari referred to above, or whether pending the final orders of Government, the weapons should be seized and kept in the nearest Police Stations under the rules in force now.

I have the honor to be
